

SUNDAY 10TH NOVEMBER 2019 FROM 10AM TO 6PM

A RICH HERITAGE

ART AND ROSES AT THE CEDARS HAHNDORF

Speakers' Programme

10.30am Allan Campbell Curator of The Cedars on the roses grown and painted by the Heysen family

12 noon Christine McCabe author of "A Garden in the Hills" on 'My gardening life'

1.30pm Sandra Kearney researcher for Australian Garden History Society on seasonal records kept by the Heysens of their favoured flowers grown for the garden

3pm Tansy and Penelope Curtin authors of "Blooms and Brushstrokes" on compiling a floral history of Australian art

2.30pm Announcement of winner of Nora Heysen Junior Art Prize

5.30pm Drawing of Raffle

A RICH HERITAGE Art and Roses at The Cedars Hahndorf

Sunday 10 November 2019 10am to 6pm
An exclusive Celebration of Spring in the garden of celebrated father and daughter artists Sir Hans and Nora Heysen
In support of the preservation of this unique Artist's garden

Venue : The Cedars 68 Heysen Road, Hahndorf SA 5245 (08) 8388 7277
www.hansheysen.com.au

Tickets $15.00, children 15 and under free
Purchase at gate, correct money appreciated
Includes entry to the garden, house, studios and speakers' tent

NORA HEYSEN FOUNDATION in conjunction with
AUSTRALIAN GARDEN HISTORY SOCIETY

Reproduction of Heysen paintings with real flowers and artefacts
Displays of heritage roses
Plant stalls

Morning and afternoon teas
Market Table of fresh produce, homemade preserves, cakes, biscuits
Children's activities
The Artist's Walk

.....
.New Exhibition :

The Family at The Cedars
Displays of domestic objects including children's toys, games, books and Heysen family portraits

.....
Live Music in the garden all day
10-3.30pm with family band Tamarisque
4-6pm Wine & Jazz with Keith Conlon Trio